If you have spare caramel, that's sparamel.
What you have there is sparamel.

Something about how it sounds when I make phone calls

A clay pot shattering on concrete fragments of digital pottery splintering out the tiny speaker flat edges in succession phonemes collapsing into square waves my superior temporal gyrus sputters spatches of fert scerches
"Schris fib chates fis thimng for you to scarp scarp!"
full bars melting dazed digital glass breaking across speaker diaphragms each per sufflichangks crèche frenspitch Mom, I'm gonna have to call you back.

After the Hackathon

You got a slimy brain
That's it, you're going to die of cancer.
You don't have to brush your teeth
when you're dead
You could die any second at all isn't it strange to be trapped inside a slimy brain?
The body ages
